

Molly Aderholt Joins Century Realty

February 8, 2017 - Century Realty LLC, the real estate brokerage affiliate of Century Equities, Inc., is pleased to announce that Molly Aderholt has joined its team of real estate professionals as Corporate Counsel for Century Realty. Ms. Aderholt focuses on real estate transactions and a wide variety of other legal matters. Ms. Aderholt and Century Realty work directly with affiliate companies Century Equities and Century Hospitality. Previously, Ms. Aderholt spent nearly 11 years in private practice with a major regional law firm, Steptoe & Johnson PLLC.

Prior to joining Century Realty, Ms. Aderholt had a varied practice that involved both litigation and transactional work. Ms. Aderholt initially specialized in general civil defense litigation, and subsequently focused her practice on real estate and energy title and transactions. As a litigator, Ms. Aderholt primarily defended individuals and companies in matters involving personal injury, premises liability and professional liability. As a real estate and energy attorney, Ms. Aderholt handled acquisitions of land and mineral interests on behalf of a Fortune 500 company, and assisted multiple energy companies in acquiring various interests, performing due diligence and conducting general land operations.

“We are thrilled to have Molly join the Century Realty team and are excited to utilize her legal and real estate expertise to expand our already growing business in the Ohio Valley and Western Pennsylvania markets,” said Adam Weidner, Executive Vice President at Century Realty.
